ITTC 2026
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE & EXPO

Why Participation Matters Strategically

Participating in ITTC 2026 provides organizations with a unique opportunity to strengthen their position in the international transport and logistics industry while contributing to discussions shaping the future of regional and global connectivity.

The conference brings together government authorities, international organizations, financial institutions, investors, transport infrastructure operators, logistics providers, technology companies, and industry leaders. This high-level platform creates valuable opportunities for business development, investment promotion, strategic partnerships, and knowledge exchange.

Who Participates?

- Representatives of government bodies
- Delegations of state institutions
- International investors and financial organizations
- Top management of companies and corporations
- Small and medium-sized enterprises and entrepreneurs
- Industry specialists and research centers
- Chambers of commerce and professional associations
- Media outlets and communication sector representatives

Why Become a Partner?

- Facilitation of business meetings with key decision-makers from government institutions
- Broad recognition of your company among influential leaders and strategic decision-makers
- Partnership packages are designed to support sales growth and strengthen brand positioning, serving as an effective promotional tool
- All partners receive a comprehensive set of privileges ensuring maximum visibility at every stage – from preparation to the event itself
